

The next Warehouse of Contemporary Art show is Saturday, 9/11/2010. The gallery is open 6-10 PM. This show will prove to be an interesting and provocative experience. WOCA is featuring a special exhibit of works concerning the many aspects and ramifications of the events surrounding 9/11/2001. Highlights include a special concert/performance art piece by NASA SPACE UNIVERSE, an installation by Rick Molina, a video/film by Larry Barnes, and a dance by Cristina Suarez.

WOCA will also present painting, photography drawing and sculpture by 15 area artists including: Will Koffman, Xavier Castro, Michael Hammond, and Dave Ruhl.

Please come by for an eventful evening of art, live music, surprises and new friends. WOCA is located at 1566 W. Embassy Street Anaheim, CA 92802—just off Lincoln on Loara (East of Euclid off the 5 Freeway). For more information and directions, go to the WOCA website: www.wocagallery.com or call Robert at (714) 343-3043.
